

Junior Level Developer/Designer

Over 8 years of experience working in a large corporate environment. Able to coordinate with other highly skilled professionals to facilitate completion of projects. Self-starter, driven to produce high quality, consistent results. Prioritize and manage work flow of large and small scale requests simultaneously to ensure deadlines are met. Life-long learner with excellent project management, design, and technical skill set. Graduate of the 9 week Microsoft .Net Accelerated Learning Program at Eleven Fifty Academy, located in Carmel and Fishers, IN. Former Design Specialist with Steelcase furniture dealership, onsite at Eli Lilly, transitioning into development.

- Application development with C# and Visual Studio
- Familiarity with both front end and back end design
- Experience in web design with HTML, CSS, and Javascript, using Sublime Text
- Utilization of Git version control system
- Excellent work ethic and highly attentive to detail
- Adept at working independently and on a team
- Highly proficient at translating client wants/needs into a viable solution
- Knowledge of Microsoft Office suite: Outlook, Word, Excel, PowerPoint
- Highly analytical mindset and strong problem solving skills
- Skilled at creating customized solutions and developing repeatable processes
- Exceptional organizational skills, as well as written and verbal communication skills

EXPERIENCE

Eleven Fifty Academy Carmel, IN

.NET Apprentice, September 2016 to present

Eleven Fifty Academy's Apprenticeship program serves as a bridge between the classroom and employment. It is an opportunity to practice and continue to learn about the industry.

- Introduced to Confluence and JIRA
- Currently working on group based Shopping List app in C# and Visual Studio
- Serving as configuration manager for group's Git repository

Eleven Fifty Academy Carmel, IN

.NET Accelerated Learning Program Student, June 2016 to August 2016

As a 9-week course, Eleven Fifty Academy's Accelerated Learning Program trains students in programming fundamentals, while utilizing real world scenarios and providing a well-rounded curriculum.

- Developed several MVC applications in C# and Visual Studio
- Setup and updated SQL Server databases for applications as needed, using Entity Framework and Code First Migrations

- Deployed applications using Microsoft Azure and assisted classmates with the deployment process
- Customized front end and/or back end design for all applications
- Familiarized with debugging applications and basic unit testing
- Created a professional portfolio website, using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript in Sublime Text
- Introduced to cross-platform mobile application using Xamarin
- Setup and utilized Git for version control
- Formally trained in Agile methodology and Scrum
- Participated in additional courses, including Professional Etiquette, Testing, Security, UX/UI Design, Deployment, etc.

Business Furniture LLC Indianapolis, IN

Design Team Lead, Onsite at Eli Lilly, February 2016 to June 2016

- Conducted weekly meetings to ensure consistency and to maintain standards
- Mentored design staff regarding process and project specifics
- Facilitated communication between Business Furniture and design team

Design Specialist, Onsite at Eli Lilly, September 2007 to June 2016

- Completed over 100 requests per year successfully, with installations ranging from a single station to 130 stations
- Regularly redesigned existing product in new configurations
- Blended existing product with new standards to enhance spaces
- Followed iterative design process throughout, with focus on customer approval prior to proceeding with installation
- Documented project process throughout for reference and audits
- Assigned to work with high level clients and executives
- Acted as project coordinator, product owner, and designer daily
- Managed and prioritized multiple projects and smaller requests simultaneously
- Engaged directly with customers to evaluate needs and requirements
- Provided excellent communication throughout the design process, including e-mail correspondence, updates, and follow up
- Explained details and processes to customers and vendors as needed and established rapport
- Engaged other crews and vendors when required to satisfy customer needs
- Managed the artwork inventory onsite and maintained database and spreadsheets
- Developed and modified processes to address a variety of large scale artwork, branding, and signage projects.

Ethan Allen Interiors Indianapolis, IN

Design Consultant, February 2007-September 2007

- Discussed needs with prospective and established customers
- Presented possible solutions and reviewed options for customization as applicable
- Developed customer tailored presentations
- Assisted fellow consultants with presentation setup

- Provided customer service throughout the sales process, including updates regarding arrival dates and follow up

David Dale Designs Muncie, IN

Intern, May 2005-August 2005

- Assisted senior designers with design and project development
- Calculated pricing for a major project
- Wrote specifications for two major projects
- Assisted in the maintenance and organization of the firm's resource library

EDUCATION

Eleven Fifty Academy Carmel, IN

.NET Language Accelerated Learning Program, August 2016

Intro to Programming (JavaScript), April 2016

Ball State University Muncie, IN

Bachelor of Science in Family and Consumer Sciences, May 2006

Concentration in Interior Design with Marketing Minor

Honors Student and Recipient of Presidential Scholarship

GPA: 3.986 - Graduated Summa cum Laude